While the enemies scoffe, Nehemiah prayeth and continueth the worke. 7 Vnderstanding the wrath and secrets of the enemy, hee setteth a watch. 13 Hee armeth the labourers, 19 and giueth military precepts.

Vt it came to passe, that when Sanballat heard, that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and tooke great indignation, and mocked the lewes.

2 And he spake before his brethren, and the army of Samaria, and said, What doe these feeble Iewes? wil they fortifie themselves? will they sacrifice? Hebr. Leans wil they make an end in a day? wil they selves. reuiue the stones, out of the heapes of the rubbish, which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Euen that which they build, if a foxe goe vp, he shall even breake downe their stone wall.

4 Heare, O our God, for we are tde- Hebr. despised : and turne their reproch vpon spight. their owne head, and give them for a pray, in the land of captiuitie.

5 And couer not their iniquitie, and let not their sinne bee blotted out from before thee : for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall, and all the wall was loyned together vnto the halfe therof: for the people had a minde to worke.

then they were very wroth,
8 And conspired all of them together, to come and to fight against Ieru-

Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Ara-bians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walles of Ierusalem twere made vp, and that the breaches began to bee stopped,

10 And Iudah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubhish, so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said. They shall not know, neither see, till wee come in the midst among them, and slav them, and cause the worke to cease.

12 And it came to passe that when the Iewes which dwelt by them, came, l Or, that from all pia-ces ye must returne to vs. they said vnto vs ten times, || From all places, whence yee shall returne vnto vs, they will be open you.

13 Therefore set I tin the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I euen set the people, after their families, with their swords, their speares, and their bowes.

14 And I looked, and rose vp. and said vnto the Nobles, and to the rulers, and to rest of the people, Bee not ye afraid of them : Remember the Lord which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sonnes and your daughters, your wives & your houses.

15 And it came to passe when our enemies heard that it was knowen vnto vs, and God had brought their counsell to nought, that we returned all of vs to the wall, every one vnto his worke.

16 And it came to passe from that time forth, that the halfe of my seruants wrought in the worke, and the other halfe of them held both the speares, the shields and the bowes, and the habergeons, and the rulers were behind all the house of Iudah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, euery one with one of his hands wrought in the worke, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had Heb on his his sword girded thy his side, and so builded : and he that sounded the trumpet was by mee.

19 ¶ And I said vnto the Nobles. and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The worke is great and large; and wee are separated vpon the wall, one farre from another:

20 In what place therefore ye heare the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither vnto vs: our God shal fight for vs.

21 So wee laboured in the worke : and halfe of them held the speares, from the rising of the morning, til the starres

22 Likewise at the same time said I vnto the people, Let euery one, with his sernant, lodge within Ierusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to vs, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, uor my seruants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of vs put off our clothes, | saving that every | 10r, every one put them off for washing.

3 And I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I am doing a great worke, so that I can not come down : why should the worke cease, whilest I leave it, and come downe to you? 4 Yet they sent vnto me foure times, after this sort ; and I answered them after the same maner.

5 Then sent Sanballat his seruant vnto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand:

6 Wherein was written; It is reported among the heathen, and || Gash-10r, ocmu sayth it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebell: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their King, according to these words.

9 For they all made vs afraid, saying, Their handes shall be weakened from the worke that it bee not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

16 And it came to passe that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen, that were about vs, saw these things, they were much cast downe in their owne eyes : for they perceived that this worke was wrought of our God.

17 T Moreover, in those dayes the Hebr. mul nobles of Iudah tsent many letters vnto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came vnto them.

2 * Vanitie of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanitie of vanities, all is vanitie.

3 * What profite hath a man of all his labour which hee taketh vnder the Sunne?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation commeth : * but the earth abideth for ener.

5 The Sunne also ariseth, and the Sunne goeth downe, and thasteth to the place where he arose. 6 The winde goeth toward the South, and turneth about vnto the North: it whirleth about continually, and the winde returneth agains according to his circuits. 7 * All the rivers runne into the sea, yet the Sea is not full : vnto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they treturne againe. 8 All things are full of labour, man cannot vtter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the eare filled with hearing.

9 The thing that hath beene, it is that which shall be : and that which is done, is that which shall be done; and there is no new thing wnder the sunne. 10 Is there any thing, whereof it may be sayd, See, this is new? it hath beene already of olde time, which was before vs.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there bee any remembrance of things that are to come, with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ I the Preacher was king ouer Israel in Ierusalem.

my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soule, the sound of the Trumpet, the alarme of warre.

20 Destruction vpon destruction is cried, for the whole land is spoiled : suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtaines in a moment.

21 How long shal I see the standard and heare the sound of the Trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they haue not knowen me, they are sottish children, and they have none vnderstanding : they are wise to doe euill, but to doe good they have no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and loe, it was without forme and void: and the heauens, and they had no light.

24 I beheld the mountaines, and loe they trembled, and all the hilles mooued lightly.

25 I behelde, and loe, there was no man, and all the hirdes of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and loe, the fruitfull place was a wildernesse, and all the cities thereof were broken downe at the presence of the Load, and hy his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the Loan said; Cha. 5. 14. The whole land shall be desolate : *yet will I not make a full ende.

28 For this shall the earth mourne, and the heauens aboue be blacke : because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turne backe from it.

29 The whole citie shall flee, for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen, they shall goe into thickets, and climbe vp vpon the rockes : euery city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou doe? though thou clothest thy selfe with crimsin, though thou deckest thee with ornsments of golde, though thou rentest thy + face with painting, in vaine shalt thou make thy selfe faire, thy louers will despise thee, they will seeke thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in trauel, and the anguish as of her that bringeth foorth her first childe, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth her selfe, that spreadeth her hands, saying; Woe is me now, for my soule is wearied because of murderers of the Loans house, and proclaime there this word, and say, Heare the word of the LORD, all ye of Iudab, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

S Thus saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel; Amend your wayes, and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the Long, the Temple of the LORD are these.

5 For if ye throughly amend your waies and your doings, if you through ly execute indgement betweene a man and his neighbour:

6 If ye oppresse not the stranger, the fatherlesse and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walke after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for euer and euer.

8 T Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steale, murther, and commit adulterie, and sweare falsly, and hurne incense vnto Baal, and walke after other gods, whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, twhich is called by my Name, and say, We are deliuered, to do all these abominations?

8 This is the word that came vnto Ieremiah from the Loan, after that the king Zedekiah had made a couenant with all the people which were at Terusalem to proclaime *liberty vnto them.

9 That euery man should let his man seruant, and euery man his maide seruant, being an Hebrewe, or an Hebrewesse, goe free, that none should serue himselfe of them, to wit, of a lew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes and all the people which had entred into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man seruant, and every one his maid seruant goe free, that none should serue themselues of them any more, then they obeyed and let them goe.

11 But afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids whom they had let goe free, to returne, and brought them into subjection for seruants and for handmaids.

12 Therefore the worde of the LORD came to Ieremiah, from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the Loup the God of Israel, I made a couenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

14 At the end of * seuen yeeres, let * Exp. 21. 2 ye go euery man his brother an Hebrew deut. 15. 12 which || hath bene sold vnto thee: and or sais when he hath serued thee sixe yeeres, relfe. thou shalt let him goe free from thee, but your fathers hearkened not vnto me, neither inclined their eare.

uants and for handmaids. 17 Therfore thus saith the LORD, Ye haue not hearkened vnto me, in proclaiming libertie euery one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour; behold, I proclaime a libertie for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine, and I wil make you to be *removed into all the Heb. for a kingdomes of the earth.

By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 le-remiah condemneth the disobedience of the Iewes. 18 God blesseth the Rechabites for their obedience.

HE word which came vnto I eremiah from the LORD, in the daies of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah, saying,

2 Goe vnto the house of the Rechabites, and speake vnto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drinke.

3 Then I tooke Isazaniah the sonne of Ieremiah the sonne of Habaziniah and his brethren, and all his sonnes, and the whole house of the Rechabites.

4 And I brought them into the house of the Lond, into the chamber of the sonnes of Hanan, the sonne of Igdaliah a man of God, which was by the chamber of the Princes, which mas aboue the chamber of Masseigh, the Hebr. three sonne of Shallum, the keeper of the doore.

5 And I set before the sonnes of the house of the Rechabites, pottes, full of wine, and cups, and I said vnto them, Drinke ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drinke no wine : for Ionadab the sonne of Rechab our father, commanded vs, saving; Ye shall drinke no wine, neither ve. nor your sonnes for euer.

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant Vineyard, nor haue any : but all your dayes ye shall dwell in tents, that ye may live many dayes in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Ionadab the sonne of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged vs. to drinke no wine all our dayes, we, our wines, our sonnes, nor our daughters:

9 Nor to build houses for vs to dwel in, neither haue we Vineyard, nor field, nor seed.

10 But wee haue dwelt in tents, and haue obeyed, and done according to all that Ionadab our father commanded vs.

11 But it came to passe when Nehuchadrezzar king of Babylon came vp into the land, that we said, Come, and let vs goe to Ierusalem for feare of the armie of the Caldeans, and for feare of the armie of the Syrians; so we dwell at Ierusalem.

12 Then came the word of the Long voto Ieremiah, saying,

15 Thus saith the Load of hosts, the God of Israel, Goe and tel the men of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem, Will yee not receive instruction to hearken to my words, saith the LORD?

14 The wordes of Ionadab the sonne of Rechab, that hee commanded his sonnes, not to drinke wine, are performed; for vnto this day they drinke none, but obey their fathers commandement: notwithstanding I have spoken vnto you, rising early, and speaking, but ye hearkened not vnto me.

15 I haue sent also vnto you all my seruants the Prophets, rising vp early and sending them, saying, "Returne ye" Chap. 18. now every man from his euil way, and 3. amend your doings, and goe not after other gods to serue them, and ye shall dwell in the land, which I have given to you, and to your fathers : but yee haue not enclined your eare, nor hearkned vnto me.

16 Because the sonnes of Ionadab, the sonne of Rechab, have performed the commaundement of their father, which he commaunded them, but this people hath not hearkened vnto me;

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD

18 ¶ And Ieremiah savd vnto the house of the Rechabites. Ieremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophe cie, 5 and publikely to reade it. 11 The Princes having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Ichudi to fetch the roule and reade it.
19 They will Baruch to hide himselfe and Ieremiah. 20 The king leboiakim being certified thereof, heareth part of it, and hur-neth the roule. 27 Ieremiah denounceth his judgement. 32 Baruch writeth a newe copie.

Nd it came to passe in the fourth years of Iosiah king of Iudah, that this word came vnto Ieremifourth yeere of Ichois-

2 Take thee a roule of a booke, and write therein all the words that I have spoken vnto thee against Israel, and against Iudah, & against all the nations, from the day I spake vnto thee, fro the dayes of * Iosiah, euen vnto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Iudah will heare all the euil which I purpose to doe vnto them; that they may returne euery man from his euill way. that I may forgiue their iniquitie, and their sinne.

4 Then Ieremiah called Baruch the sonne of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Ieremiah all the words of the Long, which he had spoken vnto him, vpon a roule of a booke.

5 And Ieremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut vp, I cannot goe into the house of the LORD.

6 Therefore goe thou and reade in the roule, which thou hast written from eares of all Iudah, that come out of their cities.

7 It may bee † they will present | Hot. their their supplication before the Loan, and fall and will returne enery one from his euill way: for great is the anger and the furie that the Lond hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the sonne of Neriah did according to all that Ieremiah the Prophet commanded him, reading in the booke the wordes of the Long. in the Loups house.

9 And it came to passe in the fifth veere of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah king of Iudah, in the ninth moneth, that they proclaimed a fast before the Lord to all the people in Ierusalem, & to all the people that came from the cities of Judah vnto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the booke, the wordes of Ieremiah in the house of the Lord, in the chamber of Gemarish the sonne of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court at the || # entry | Or, down of the newe gate of the Louds, house, in the eares of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the sonne of Gemariah the sonne of Shaphan had heard out of the booke, all the words of the Long;

13 Then Michaiah declared vnto them all the words that hee had heard when Baruch read the booke in the eares of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Iehudi the sonne of Nethaniah, the sonne of Shelemiah, the sonne of Cushi, vnto Baruch, saying; Take in thine hand the roule wherein thou hast read in the eares of the people, and come. So Baruch the sonne of Neriah took the roule in his hand, and came vnto them.

15 And they sayde vnto him, Sit downe now and read it in our eares. So Baruch read it in their eares.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell vs now, How diddest thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, Hee pronounced all these words vnto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with inke in the Booke.

19 Then said the Princes vnto Baruch, Go hide thee, thou and I eremiah, and let no man know where yee bee, 20 ¶ And they went in to the King into the Court, but they layed up the roule in the chamber of Elishama the Scribe, and told all the words in the eares of the king.

21 So the king sent Iehudi to fet the roule, and hee tooke it out of Elishama the scribes chamber, and lehudi read it in the eares of the king, and in the eares of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sate in the winter house, in the ninth moneth, & there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to passe that when Ichudi had read three or foure leaves. he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, vntill all the roule was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor amy of his seruants that heard all these words.

25 Neuerthelesse Elnathan, and Delaiah & Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burne the roule, but he would not heare them.

26 But the king commaunded Ierahmeel the sonne || of Hammelech, and Seraiah the soune of Azriel, & Shelemiah the sonne of Abdiel, to take Baruch the scribe, and Ieremiah the Prophet : but the Lond hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Ieremiah (after that the king had burnt the roule and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Ieremiah) saying, 28 Take thee agains another roule, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roule, which Ichoiakim the king of Iudah hath burnt.

29 And thou shalt say to Iehoiskim king of Iudah, Thus sayth the LORD, Thou hast burnt this roule, Baruch, Wee will surely tell the King saying, The king of Babylon shall certainely come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and heart?

32 Then tooke Ieremiah another roule, and gaue it to Baruch the scribe the sonne of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Ieremiah. all the words of the booke which Iehoiakim king of Iudah had burnt in the fire, and there were added besides vnto them, many † like words.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Iewes that were with him, even with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Caldeans that were found there, and the men of warre.

6 And Ishmael the sonne of Nethanish went foorth from Mizpah to meete them, tweeping all along as hee went: and it came to passe as hee met them, he said vnto them, Come to Gedaliah the sonne of Abikam.

7 And it was so when they came into the midst of the citie, that Iahmael the sonne of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them, that said vnto Ishmael, Slay vs not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheate, and of barley, and of oyle, and of hony: so he forbare, and slewe them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men (whom he had slaine || because of Gedalish) was it, which Asa the king had made, for feare of Baasha king of Israel, and Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slaine.

 The redemption of Israel.

He word that the LORD spake against Babylon, and against the land of the Caldeans † by Ieremiah the Prophet.

2 Declare yee among the nations, and publish, and teet vp a standart, publish and conceale not : say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces, her idols are confounded, her Images are broken in pieces.

S For out of the North there commeth vp a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein : they shall remoue, they shall depart both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those daies, and in that time, saith the Lond, the children of Israel shall come, they, and the children of Iudah together, going and weeping: they shall goe, and seeke the LOED their God.

with their faces thitherward, saying Come, and let vs loyne our selues to the LORD, in a perpetuall Couenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath bene lost sheepe their anepheards have caused them to goe astray, they have turned them away on the mountaines : they have gone from mountaine to hill, they have forgotten their † resting place.

7 All that found them have denoured them, and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of iustice, even the Lond, the hope of their fathers.

8 . Remove out of the midst of Ba. sind se. bylon, and goe foorth out of the land of 10. chap. the Caldeans, and be as the hee goats is a before the flocks.

9 T For loe, I will raise and cause to come vp against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the North countrey, and they shall set themselves in aray against her, from thence shee shalbe taken : their arrowes shalbe as of a mightie ||expert man : none shall re- 1 or, deturne in vaine.

Chap.I.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel againe to his habitation, and he shal feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soule shall be satisfied vpon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those dayes, and in that time, sayth the Long, the iniquitie of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sinnes of Iudah, and they shall not be found : for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

21 T Goe vp against the land || of Merathaim, euen against it, and against the inhabitants || of Pekod : waste and vtterly destroy after them, sayeth the LORD, and doe according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A sound of battell is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken? how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations?

24 I have laide a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware : thou art found and also caught, because thou hast striuen against the Lond.

25 The LORD hath opened his armorie, and hath brought foorth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the worke of the Lord Gon of hosts, in the land of the Caldeans.

26 Come against her + from the vtmost border, open her store-houses: least her vp as heapes, and destroy her vtterly : let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks : let them goe downe to the slaughter : woe vnto them, for their day is come, the time of shee hath done vnto her : for shee hath bene proud against the Loud, against the Holy one of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her yong men fall in the streets, & all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most t proud, sayth the Lord God of Het pride hostes : for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And the most + proude shall stum- t Het pride ble and fall, and none shal raise him vp: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall denoure all round about him.

33 Thus saith the Loan of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Iudah were oppressed together, and all that tooke them captives, held them fast, they refused to let them goe.

34 Their Redeemer is strong, the LORD of hosts is his Name, he shall throughly pleade their cause, that hee may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is vpon the Caldeans. saith the LORD, and vpon the inhahitants of Babylon, and vpon her princes, and voon her wise men.

S6 A sword is vpon the || lyers, and | 10r, chiefe they shall dote : a sword is vpon her barres. mighty men, and they shalbe dismayed.

37 A sword is voon their horses, and vpon their charets, and vpon all the mingled people that are in the middest of her, and they shall become as women: a sword is vpon her treasures, and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is vpon her waters, and they shalbe dried vp : for it is the land of grauen images, and they are madde vpon their idoles.

39 Therefore the wilde beasts of the desert with the wilde beastes of the I lands shall dwel there, and the owles shall dwell therein: & it shalbe no more inhabited for euer: neither shall it bee dwelt in fro generation to generation.

40 * As God ouerthrew Sodom and * Gen. 19. Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities 15. cliap. thereof, sayth the LORD : so shall no man abide there, neither shal any sonne of man dwell therein.

58 Though Babylon should mount vp to heaven, and though shee should fortifie the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come vnto her, saith the Lond.

54 A sound of a crie commeth from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Caldeans.

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voyce when her waves doe roare like great waters, a noise of their voice is vttered.

60 So Ieremiah wrote in a booke or chief all the euill that should come vpon Ba-chaine bylon: cuen all these wordes that are written against Babylon.

61 And Ieremiah said to Seraiah, When thou commest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words, 62 Then shalt thou say, O Lozo, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remaine in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shalbe + desolate for ever.

63 And it shall bee when thou hast lation made an end of reading this booke, that thou shalt binde a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates.

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sinke, and shall not rise from the enill that I will bring vpon her: and they shall be wearie. Thus farre are the words of Ieremiah.

The time of Ezekiels prophecie at Chebar. 4 His vision of foure Cherubims, 15 Of the foure wheeles, 26 and of the glory of God.

Ow it came to name in the thirtieth yeere, in the fourth moneth, in the fifth day of the moneth. (as I was among the captines by the riuer of Chebar) that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the moneth, (which was the fifth yeere of king Ieho-iakins captinitie,)

S The word of the Loup came expresly vnto † Ezekiel the Priest, the sonne of Buzi, in the land of the Caldeans, by the river Chebar, and the hand of the Lord was there voon him.

4 ¶ And I looked, and behold, whirlewinde came out of the North, a great cloude, and a fire + infoulding it selfe, and a brightnesse was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likenesse of foure liuing creatures, and this was their appearance: they had the likenesse of a man.

6 And euery one had foure faces. and euery one had foure wings.

7 And their feet were † straight feet, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calues foot, and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brasse.

8 And they had the handes of a man vinder their wings on their foure sides, and they foure had their faces and their wings.

10 As for the likenesse of their faces, they foure had the face of a man, and the face of a Ivon on the right side, and they foure had the face of an oxe on the left side : they foure also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces : and their wings were || stretched vpward, two | 0r, distiwings of every one were loyned one to an other, and two conered their bodies.

12 And they went enery one straight forward : whither the spirit was to goe, they went; and they turned not when 15 As for the likenesse of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coles of fire, and like the appearance of lamps : it went vp and downe among the liuing creatures, and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went foorth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ranne, and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now as I behelde the liuing creatures: behold one wheele vpon the earth by the liuing creatures, with his foure faces.

22 And the likenesse of the firmament vpon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible chrystall, stretched foorth ouer their heads aboue.

23 And vnder the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other, every one had two which couered on this side, & euery one had two, which couered on that side their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almightie, the voice of speech, as the noise of an hoste : when they stood, they let downe their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament, that was ouer their heads. when they stood, and had let downe their wings.

26 ¶ And aboue the firmament that was over their heads, was the likenesse of a Throne, as the appearance of a Saphyre stone, and vpon the likenesse of the Throne was the likenesse as the appearance of a man aboue vpon it. 27 And I saw as the colour of am-

6 And it grew, and became a sprea-ding Vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were vnder him: so it became a Vine, and brought forth branches, and shot foorth sprigges.

yeere after that the citie was smitten, in the selfe same day, the hand of the LORD was voon mee, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set mee vpon a very high mountaine, || by which was as the frame of a citie on the South.

S And he brought mee thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brasse, with a line of flaxe in his hand, & a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man saide vnto mee; Sonne of man, behold with thine eyes, and heare with thine cares, & set thine heart voon all that I shall shew thee: for to the intent that I might shew them vnto thee, art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest, to the house of Israel.

5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about : and in the mans hand a measuring reed of sixe cuhites long, by the cubite, and an hand breadth : so hee measured the breadth of the building, one reed, and the height one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured hee the porch of the gate, eight cubites, and the postes thereof two cubits, and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the litle chambers of the gate Eastward, were three on this side, and three on that side, they three were of one measure, and the postes had one measure on this side, and on that side.

14 He made also postes of threescore cubites, even vnto the poste of the court round about the gate.

3 ¶ And the king spake vnto Ash-penas the master of his Eunuches, that he should bring certains of the children of Israel, and of the kings seed, and of the Princes:

4 Then the Presidents and Princes sought to finde occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdome, but they could finde none occasion, nor fault : forasmuch as he was faithfull, neither was there any errour or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not finde any occasion against this Daniel, except wee finde it against him concerning the Law of his God.

6 Then these Presidents and Princes ||assembled together to the king, and said thus vnto him, King Darius, line

18 Then answered they and said before the king; That Daniel which is of the captiuity of the children of Iudah. regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when hee heard these wordes, was sore displeased with himselfe, and set his heart on Daniel to deliuer him: and he laboured till the going downe of the sunne, to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled vnto the king, and said vnto the king, Know O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, that no decree nor statute which the king establisheth, may bee changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the denne of Lions : now the king spake and saide vnto Daniel; Thy God, whom thou seruest continually, he will deliver thee.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste vnto the den of Lyons.

20 And when he came to the den, he cryed with a lamentable voice vnto Daniel, and the king spake and said to Daniel: O Daniel, servant of the living God. Is thy God whom thou scruest continually, able to deliuer thee from the Lyons?

21 Then said Daniel vnto the king,

O king, liue for euer.

22 My God hath sent his Angel, and hath shut the Iyons mouthes that they haue not hurt me : forasmuch as before him, innocencie was found in me; and also before thee, O king, haue I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel vp out of the denne: so Daniel was taken vp out of the den, and no maner of hurt was found vpon him, because he beleeved in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of Lyons, them, their children, and their wives : and the Lyons had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottome of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote vnto all people, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth; Peace be

3 And foure great beastes came vp from the sea, divers one from another.

4 The first was like a Lyon, and had Eagles wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were pluckt, fland it was 1 or, wherelifted vp from the earth, and made stand with. vpon the feete as a man, and a mans

6 After this I beheld, and loe, another like a Leopard, which had vpon the backe of it foure wings of a foule, the beast had also foure heads, and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadfull and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great yron teeth: it denoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feete of it, and it was diuers from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten hornes.

8 I considered the hornes, and behold, there came vp among them another little horne, before whom there were three of the first hornes plockt vp by the roots : and behold, in this horne were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I beheld till the thrones were cast downe, and the Ancient of dayes did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the haire of his head like the pure wooll: his throne was like the fierie flame, and his wheeles as burning fire.

10 A fierie streame issued, and came foorth from before him : * thousand * Rev. 5. 11. thousands ministred vnto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood be-the *bookes were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voice of the great words which the horne spake: I beheld even till the beast was slaine, and his body destroyed, and ginen to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away : vet † their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the sonne of man, came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of daies, and they brought him neere before him.

14 And there was given him dominion and glory, and a kingdome, that all people, nations, and languages should serue him : his dominion is an euerlasting dominion, which shall not passe away; and his kingdome that, which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieued in my spirit in the midst of my + body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came neere vnto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this : so he told mee, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are foure, are foure Kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the Saints of the † most high shall take the kingdome, & possesse the kingdome for euer, euen foreuer & euer.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse ffrom al the others, exceeding dread ful, whose teeth were of yron, and his nailes of brasse, which denoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feete,

20 And of the ten hornes that were in his head, and of the other, which came vp, and before whom three fell, even of that horne that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose looke was more stout then his fellowes.

21 I beheld, and the same horne made warre with the Saints, and preuailed against them:

22 Vntill the Ancient of daies came, and judgment was given to the Saints of the most high: and the time came that the Saints possessed the kingdome.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdome vpon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdomes, & shall denoure the whole fore him : the judgement was set, and | |earth , and shall tread it downe , and breake it in pieces.

24 And the tenne hornes out of this kingdome are tenne Kings that shall arise : and an other shall rise after them. and he shall be diverse from the first. and he shall subdue three Kings.

25 And he shall speake great words against the most high, and shall weare out the Saints of the most high, and thinke to change times, and lawes : and they shall be given into his hand, vntill a time and times, & the dividing of time.

26 But the judgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume, and to destroy if vnto the end.

27 And the *kingdome and domini- Luc. 1. 33. on, and the greatnesse of the kingdome vnder the whole heauen, shall be given to the people of the Saints of the most high, whose kingdome is an euerlasting kingdome, and all || dominions shall || 00. rulers. serue and obey him.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said vnto him; What meanest thou. O sleeper? Arise, call vpon thy God, if so be that God wil thinke vpon ve, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow; Come, and let vs cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this euil is vpon vs. So they cast lots, and the lot fell voon Ionah.

8 Then said they vnto him, Tel vs., we pray thee, for whose cause this euill is vpon vs : What is thine occupation? and whence commest thou? What is thy countrey? and of what people art thou?

hast done as it pleased thee.

25 Now after all these acts of Iosias, it came to passe that Pharao the king of Egypt came to raise warre at Carchamis vpon Euphrates and Iosias went out against him.

26 But the king of Egypt sent to him saying, What haue I to doe with thee, O king of Iudea?

27 I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee : for my warre is vpon Euphrates, and now the Lord is with mee, yes the Lord is with meel hasting me forward : Depart from me and be not against the Lord.

32 And in all Iury they mourned for Ionias, yea Icremie the Prophet lamented for Iosias, and the cheefe men with the women made lamentation for him vnto this day : and this was giuen out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel.

35 These things are written in the booke of the stories of the kings of Iudah, and every one of the acts that Iosias did, and his glory, and his vnderstanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the bookes of the Kings of Israel and 26 I have read the Epistle which ye haue sent vnto mee : therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath bene found, that that city was from the beginning practising against Kings.

27 And the men therein were given to rebellion, and warre, and that mightie Kings and fierce were in Icrusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in Coelosyria and Phenice.

3 But yet the King is more mighty: for hee is lord of all these things, and hath dominion ouer them, and whatsoeuer he commandeth them, they doe:

4 If hee bid them make warre the one against the other, they doe it : if hee send them out against the enemies, they goe, and breake downe mountaines, walles and towres.

5 They slay and are slaine, and transgresse not the Kings commandethings else.

6 Likewise for those that are no souldiers, and have not to doe with warres, but vse husbandrie; when they haue reaped againe, that which they had sowen, they bring it to the King, and compell one another to pay tribute vnto the King.

7 And yet he is but one man; if hee commaund to kill, they kill, if he command to spare, they spare.

8 If he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate. they make desolate; if hee command to build, they build:

9 If he command to cut downe. they cut downe; if he command to plant, they plant.

10 So all his people and his armies obey him; furthermore he lieth downe, he eateth and drinketh, & taketh his rest.

11 And these keeps (watch) round about him, neither || may any one depart, and doe his owne businesse, neither disobey they him in any thing.

12 O yee men, how should not the King be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? and he held his tongue.

18 Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth (this was Zorobabel) beganne to speake.

14 O yee men, it is not the great King, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine that texcelleth; who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship ouer them, are they not women?

15 Women haue borne the King and all the people, that beare rule hy sea and land.

16 Euen of the came they : & they nonrished them vp that planted the vineyards from whence the wine commeth.

17 These also make garments for men; these bring glory vnto men, and without women cannot men be.

18 Yea and if men haue gathered together gold and siluer, or any other goodly thing, doe they not love a woman, which is comely in fauour and beautie?

19 And letting all those things goe, doe they not gape, and euen with open mouth fixe their eyes fast on her; and haue not all men more desire vuto her, then vnto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoeuer?

20 A man leaueth his owne father countrie, and cleaueth vnto his wife.

21 He stickes not to spend his life with his wife, and remembreth neither father, nor mother, nor countrey.

22 By this also you must know, that women have dominion ouer you; doe yee not labour and toyle, and give and bring all to the woman?

23 Yea a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob, and to steale, to saile vpon the sea, and vpon rivers, 24 And looketh vpon a lyon, and goeth in the darknesse, and when he hath stolen, spoiled and robbed, he bringeth it to his loue.

25 Wherefore a man loueth his wife better then father and mother.

26 Yea many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and or, grower become seruants for their sakes:

27 Many also haue perished, haue erred, and sinned for women.

28 And now doe yee not believe me? is not the King great in his power? doe not all regions feare to touch him?

29 Yet did I see him and Apame the loosephantie.

32 O ye men, how can it be but women hould be strong, seeing they doe thus?

33 Then the king & the princes looked one vpon another : so he began to speake of the trueth.

$4 O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven. swift is the Sunne in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course againe to his owne place in one day.

35 Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger then all things.

36 All the earth || calleth vpon the 10r, praiseth truth, & the heaven blesseth it, all works the truth. shake and tremble at it, and with it is no varighteous thing.

38 As for the trueth it endureth, and is alwayes strong, it liueth and conque-

39 With her there is no accepting of persons, or rewards, but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all vniust and wicked things, and all men doe well like of her workes.

40 Neither in her judgement is any varighteousnesse, & she is the strength, kingdome, power and maiestic of all a ges. Blessed be the God of trueth.

41 And with that he held his peace. and al the people then shouted and said, Great is trueth, and mightie aboue all things.

42 Then saide the king vnto him, Aske what thou wilt, more then is appointed in the writing, and we wil give it thee, because thou art found wisest, and thou shalt sit next me, and shalt bee called my cousin.

43 Then said hee vnto the king, Remember thy vow which thou hast vowed to build Ierusalem in the day when thou camest to the kingdome, 44 And to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Ierusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when hee vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them againe thither.

45 Thou also hast vowed to build vp the Temple, which the Edomites burnt when Iudea was made desolate by the Chaldees.

46 And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberalitie proceeding from thy selfe: I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance wherof with thine owne mouth thou hast vowed to the king of heauen.

47 Then Darius the king stood vp and kissed him, and wrote letters for him vnto all the treasurers and lieutenants, and captaines and governours that they should safely conuey on their way, both him, and all those that go vp with him to build Ierusalem.

48 Hee wrote letters also vnto the lieutenants that were in Coelosyria and Phenice, and vnto them in Libanus.

54 He wrote also concerning the charges, and the priests vestments wherein they minister:

55 And likewise for the charges of the Leuites, to be given them, vntill the day that the house were finished, and Icrusalem builded vp.

57 He sent away also all the vessels fro Babylon that Cyrus had set apart, and all that Cyrus had given in commandement, the same charged hee also to be done, and sent vnto Ierusalem.

58 Now when this your man was gone forth, he lifted vp his face to heauen toward Ierusalem, and praised the king of heaven, 59 And said, From thee commeth victory, from thee commeth wisedom, and thine is the glory, & I am thy seruant.

60 Blessed art thou who hast given me wisedom : for to thee I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers.

61 And so he tooke the letters, and went out, and came vnto Babylon, and told it all his brethren.

might give knowledge vnto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chiefe doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principall men.

15 So they gaue vs this answere: We are the seruants of the Lord which made heauen and earth.

14 And as for this house, it was builded many yeeres agoe, by a king of Israel great and strong, and was fini-

15 But when our fathers prouoked God vnto wrath, and sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heauen, hee gaue them ouer into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon of the Chaldees:

16 Who pulled downe the house and burnt it, and caried away the people captiues vnto Babylon.

17 But in the first yeere that King Cyrus reigned ouer the country of Babylon, Cyrus the king wrote to build vp this house. 18 And the holy vessels of gold and of siluer, that Nabuchodonosor had caried away out of the house at Ierusalem, and had set them in his owne temple, those Cyrus the king brought forth againe out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to || Zorobabel | Or. Zoro

21 Now therefore if it seeme good vnto the king, let search be made among the || records of King Cyrus,

22 And if it be found, that the building of the house of the Lord at Ierusalem hath bene done with the consent of King Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him signifie vnto vs thereof.

24 In the first yeere of the reigne of Cyrus, king Cyrus commaunded that the house of the Lord at Ierusalem should bee built againe where they doe sacrifice with continuall fire.

25 Whose height shalbe sixtie cubits. and the breadth sixtie cubits, with three rowes of hewen stones, and one row of new wood of that countrey, and the expenses thereof to bee given out of the house of king Cyrus.

26 And that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and siluer that Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the house at Ierusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Ierusalem, and bee set in the place where they were before.

27 And also be commanded that Sisinnes the governoor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabusanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria, and Phenice should be carefull not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel the seruant of the Lord, and gouernour of Iudea, and the Elders of the lewes, to build the house of the Lord in that place.

28 I have commanded also to have it built vp whole againe, and that they looke diligently to helpe those that be of the captiuitie of the Iewes, till the house of the Lord be finished.

29 And out of the tribute of Coelosyria, and Phenice, a portion carefully to be given these men, for the sacrifices of the Lord that is, to Zorobabel the gouernour, for bullocks, and rammes, and lambes :

30 And also corne, salt, wine and oile, and that continually euery yeere without further question, according as the Priests that be in Ierusalem shall signi-fie, to be daily spent: 31 That ||offrings may be made to the most high God, for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lines.

S2 And he commanded, that whoseeuer should transgresse, yea, or make light of any thing afore spoken or written, ont of his owne house should a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the king.

33 The Lord therfore whose Name is there called vpon, vtterly destroy eue-
